

The Churches of Indooroopilly Present

THE REFORMATION TODAY: AN ECUMENICAL PERSPECTIVE

2017 marks the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Many historians consider the Reformation one of those epoch changing events in the history of the Western world. But what does it mean for people in Australia 500 years later? Was the Reformation just a series of pointless disputes which have little relevance to the church today? Or is the church today the living legacy of the Reformation, and if so, what does this mean for us? Join us as we ask these questions together.

Calendar of Upcoming Events

- 15 May 7:00pm St Peters Lutheran College PAC, Indooroopilly
Peter Vardy—The relevance of Luther past and present
- 13 June 7:30pm Indooroopilly Uniting Church
Janice McRandall—“What the Reformation means for the Uniting Church today”
- 11 July 7:30pm St Andrews Anglican Church, Indooroopilly
Mervyn Thomas—The Reformation: an Anglican perspective
- 8 August 7:30pm Holy Family Catholic Church, Indooroopilly
Greg Munro—The Reformation a Catholic perspective
- 5 September 7:30pm St Peters Lutheran College, Indooroopilly P&F Centre
Silke Moolman—Katharina von Bora
- 28 October St Peters Lutheran College Chapel
Music and the Reformation: a concert (stay tuned for further details)
- 31 October (to be confirmed) St Peters Lutheran College Chapel
Ecumenical Vespers Service